Opening Hymn for Mass at 11am and 12.30pm

1. Be thou my vision O Lord of my heart,
Be all else but naught to save that thou art,
Be thou my best thought in the day and the night,
Both waking and sleeping, Thy presence my light.
2. Riches I need not nor man's empty praise
Be thou mine inheritance now and all days,
Be thou and thou only the first in my heart
The King of high heaven, my treasure thou art.

Welcome back to the parish choir

As we welcome back the parish choir to Sunday Mass at 11am and their organist Gerard Lillis, we pay tribute to Miriam Mooney who retired during the Summer. Miriam has given outstanding service to the parish as Director of Sacred Music and organist. Her devotion to Church music was fostered by Sister Ignatius and Miriam's service has been a continuation of the legacy the Sisters of Mercy have given to the parish. Miriam has demonstrated untiring commitment to the liturgy as well as pastoral care to the members of the choir. The quality of music performed by the parish choir in Trim has been of the highest standard. Miriam has overseen the production of widely appreciated recordings of sacred music recorded by the parish choir. She has also led the choir's participation in the Meath Diocesan pilgrimage to Lourdes. We will have an opportunity to recognise Miriam's service to the parish on a later date but today, as the choir returns, we assure Miriam and her family of our prayers and appreciation.

Statement from the Irish Bishops Conference

The Bishops discussed the Report of the Scoping Inquiry into Historical Sexual Abuse in Day and Boarding Schools Run by Religious Orders, by Mary O'Toole SC, published on 3 September.

The publication of the Scoping Inquiry is a further step in shining the light of truth into our collective past. It exposes once again the widespread abuse of our most vulnerable by those in whom parents had placed so much trust. The report is testimony to the bravery of survivors who courageously expressed their heart-breaking experience of childhood abuse and trauma, whose impact lasts a lifetime.

Today, it is important to assure parents and students that Catholic schools have robust child safeguarding procedures, and that the Catholic education sector is fully committed to maintaining effective child safeguarding by engaging positively with the Department of Education on the development, review and improvement of these standards. In addition, all departmental school inspections include a child safeguarding review.

While the safeguarding of children is now well established in both policy and culture across the school system and in wider Church and civil society, we cannot relent in our vigilance or in continuing to address the traumas of the past. It is an indispensable part of the renewal of the life of the Church in Ireland.
