Happy 70th birthday to Pope Leo XIV

Please join in the opening hymn

1. Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart;
Naught be all else to me save that thou art.
Thou my best thought by day and by night;
Waking or sleeping, thy presence my light.
2. Riches I need not, nor man's empty praise;
Thou mine inheritance, now and always.
Thou and thou only, the first in my heart,
High King of Heaven, my treasure thou art.

Choir returns - new members welcome

If you have enjoyed singing this opening hymn, why not consider joining the parish choir at 11am Mass on Sundays? Rehearsals resume this Tuesday at 7.30pm in the parish centre.

Knights of St Columbanus

Proceeds of their Church gate collection are used for parish and school activities.

English lessons for student priests

A word of thanks to Susan and Elizabeth who gave up a lot of their time as English language teachers for Fr Alvaro, Fr Tomas and Fr Louange. Their efforts are very much appreciated.

Grotto restoration

Sincerest thanks to Donal and Martin who volunteered to carry out a clean up and restoration of Our Lady's grotto in the church ground. They did excellent work.

Rosary procession on Sunday 5 October

Prayer groups asked to take part in this procession after the 11am Mass.

Parish Survey

Why Sunday Matters

"Why Sunday Matters" is a message from the Irish Bishops to start a conversation about what the Sunday Mass means to us. The message is available at www.catholicbishops.ie. Our Parish Pastoral Council would like to hear from you.

Please return this survey to the Parochial House, Parish Office or to the black envelope boxes in the Parish Church before the next meeting of the Pastoral Council on Wednesday 8 October.

We will report back to parishioners on the feedback from the survey.

Please tell us what you think in answer to these two questions:

How can we enhance the Sunday Mass?

What do you think we can do to encourage people to attend the Sunday Mass?
